ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We extend our sincere thanks to those who have willingly devoted their time to the staff:

Dr. Trentham for his guidance and helpful advice.

Mr. Suttle for his splendid sponsorship.

Mr. Siceluff for his careful proofreading.

Mrs. Ford and the art class for their work on the division pages.

Miss Roman and the typing class for completing the mimeographing with Mrs. Calton's assistance.

DEDICATION

WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK TO THE GREENWOOD STUDENTS WHO HAVE DONE THEIR PART AND ARE NOW RETURNING HOME FROM WAR-TORN LANDS TO A COUNTRY OF PEACE AND SECURITY. MAY THEY FIND AMERICA STILL THE LAND OF THEIR DREAMS, AND MAY IT REMAIN SO FOR THE FUTURE STUDENTS OF GREENWOOD.

FOREWORD

IN AN EFFORT TO RETAIN FOREVER THE VIVID MEMORIES OF STUDENT LIFE, ACTIVITIES, AND TRADITIONS ON THE GREENWOOD CAMPUS, WE BRING YOU A FLEETING RECORD OF SUCH JOYFUL SCENES THROUGH PHOTOGRAPHY AND PENCIL. THESE ARE THE THINGS WHICH GREENWOOD STUDENTS WILL CHERISH IN THE YEARS TO COME.

The administration of Greenwood High School is a democratic form of government. The governing body is composed of two representatives from every class, chosen by their respective classes; the president of the student body, chosen by the student body; and the secretary of the Student Council, chosen also by the student body. Representing the faculty in this form of government, a faculty advisor is appointed by the council to give his advice and opinions based on the years he has seen the Greenwood government perform.

For the school year 1945-1946, the Student Council chose Efton R. Henderson, supervisor of Science, as sponsor and faculty advisor. The faculty also lends their help to the administration by supervising the activities of the students in the home-rooms.

Along with the faculty advisor, the Student Council works to carry out the democratic rules and the long-standing traditions and customs of Greenwood High School.

In a training center for teachers, such as Greenwood is, a government of this type has proved very satisfactory.

 Absent: Mary Lou Humphreys, Carolyn Cook, Carol Gillespie, Gwyndolyn Johnson, Dora Quinn, Dixie Lee Morris.

The Greenwood Drum Corps was organized in the fall of 1937. It was founded to promote school spirit and to sit in a band at all home athletic contests. Under the expert supervision of Miss Henrietta Keller and Mrs. Florence Bugg, the Drum Corps has grown from eighteen members to a group of forty-five complete with drums, bugles, cymbals, twirlers, flags, and bells.

The uniforms are colorful but simple: white skirts; blue jackets; white shoes, socks, and gloves; and blue military hats. The blue drums, shiny bugles, and four beautiful flags add to the harmonious picture the Drum Corps presents.

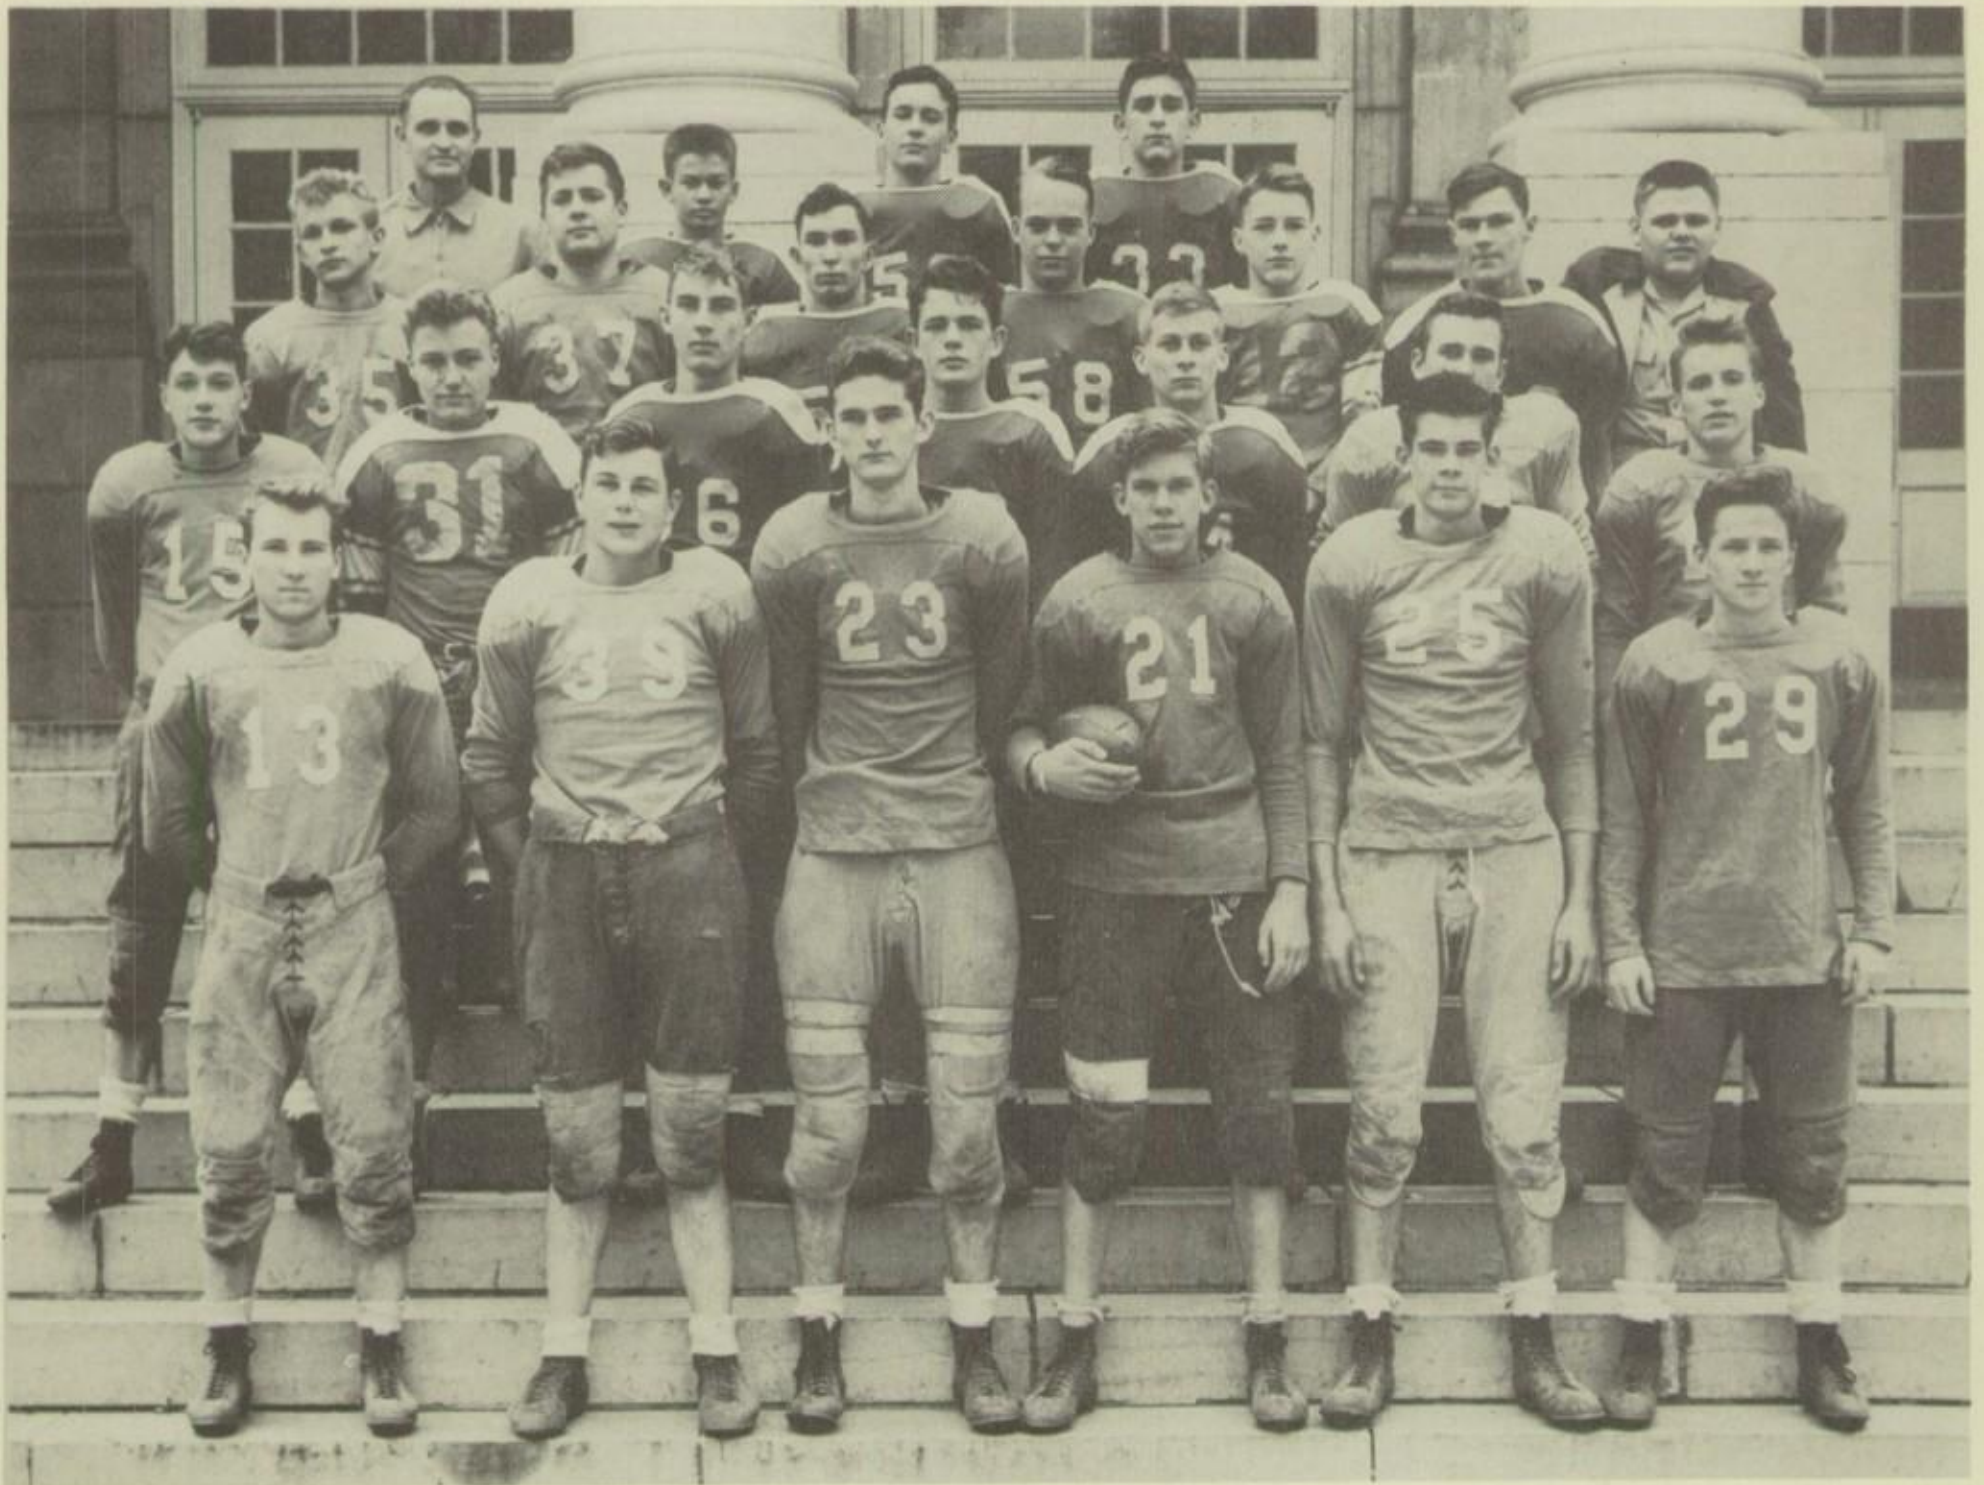

This year the Drum Corps marched at home football and basketball games. As guest performers, it also marched at Aurora and Strafford. The Drum Corps participated in the Armistice Day Parade and the Southwest Missouri State College Homecoming Parade. It was hostess of the annual football banquet and sponsored an all-school party.

This year the senior drum major was Sylvia Smith, and the junior drum major was Cathryn Cox.

- 4th row: Coach Collins, Franklin Brown, Bill Ball, Jack Bluestein.

FOOTBALL

Football practice began on September 1, with seventeen lettermen and a fine crop of rookies reporting for the initial workout. With the unusually high number of returning lettermen, Coach "Speedy" Collins looked forward to an experienced team and a fine season. Tom Anderson was chosen as captain of the squad.

The Bluejays showed their experience in the first game of the season by defeating Pierce City by a record score of 60-0. Durbin, Busiek, Feather, Crain, Anderson, and Burns figured in scoring nine touchdowns for the Jays.

The second game of the season was played with Marionville. The weather conditions were not ideal for football. A steady rain fell throughout the game, but neither the rain nor Marionville prevented the Greenwood boys from racking up a 26-0 score over the opposition. Durbin and Sunderland each counted two touchdowns.

The Jays traveled to Willow Springs for their third game; and, with Durbin, Busiek, and Crain leading the way, the boys brought home a 33-0 triumph.

The fourth game of the season proved disastrous for Greenwood as they went down in defeat to a strong Aurora ball club by a score of 26-6. The Bluejays started off with a bang and scored in the opening minutes of the game, but soon after Aurora opened with good passing and hard running to regain the lead and take the game. Bert Crain scored the Jay's only touchdown.

Game number five was played with Bolivar under the lights of their stadium. It was a hard fought game from the opening whistle, but the Jays managed to get in the winning column again with a 13-0 decision. Norman Teem and Jim Sunderland scored for the victors.

Greenwood squared off against Sarcoxie in the sixth tussle of the season and had little trouble in downing them by a score of 33-0. Feather, Durbin, and Sunderland scored for the Jays.

The final game of the year was a return engagement with the Bolivar Tigers. The Jays found things a little easier than in their previous meeting and rolled up a 20-0 score. Touchdowns were scored by H'Doubler, Sunderland, and Durbin.

By winning over 80% of their games, the Bluejays became a championship team—earning the right to wear white sweaters and miniature gold footballs.

The 1945 squad had an impressive record of six wins against one loss. They scored 191 points as compared with 26 for the opposition. It is interesting to note that only one team scored on the Bluejays all season.

BASKETBALL

Although the past season produced no championship awards, the '46 edition of the Greenwood basketball team provided its share of thrills and excitement.

After only two days of practice, the team made its initial appearance in the Willard Tournament where they won fourth place, defeating Morrisville and Fair Grove, and losing to Ash Grove and Strafford.

Next came the Ozark Tournament where the Bluejays won from Nixa, but were eliminated from the tournament by a strong Ava team.

The Bluejays traveled to Republic for the first game on the regular schedule; however, the opposition proved too strong and the Jays lost 37-24.

The next four games were recorded in the Greenwood win-column as they smothered Aurora 37-18; downed Bolivar 32-30; squeezed past Billings with a last quarter rally 40-36; and nipped Strafford 35-32.

Ozark succeeded in stopping the Jays' winning streak by a 34-23 decision over the local five. The Aurora Tournament proved disastrous for Coach Collins' boys as they lost their two games to Clever and Mt. Vernon.

The next three games were victories as Greenwood downed Marshfield 42-38; beat Bolivar 30-24 and Strafford 34-31.

Greenfield handed the Bluejays their next defeat by a score of 32-27. Rogersville proved easy for the Jays as they scored a 37-29 victory.

The remaining games saw Greenwood lose to Mt. Vernon 33-31; win from Buffalo 35-26; and defeat Rogersville 34-25.

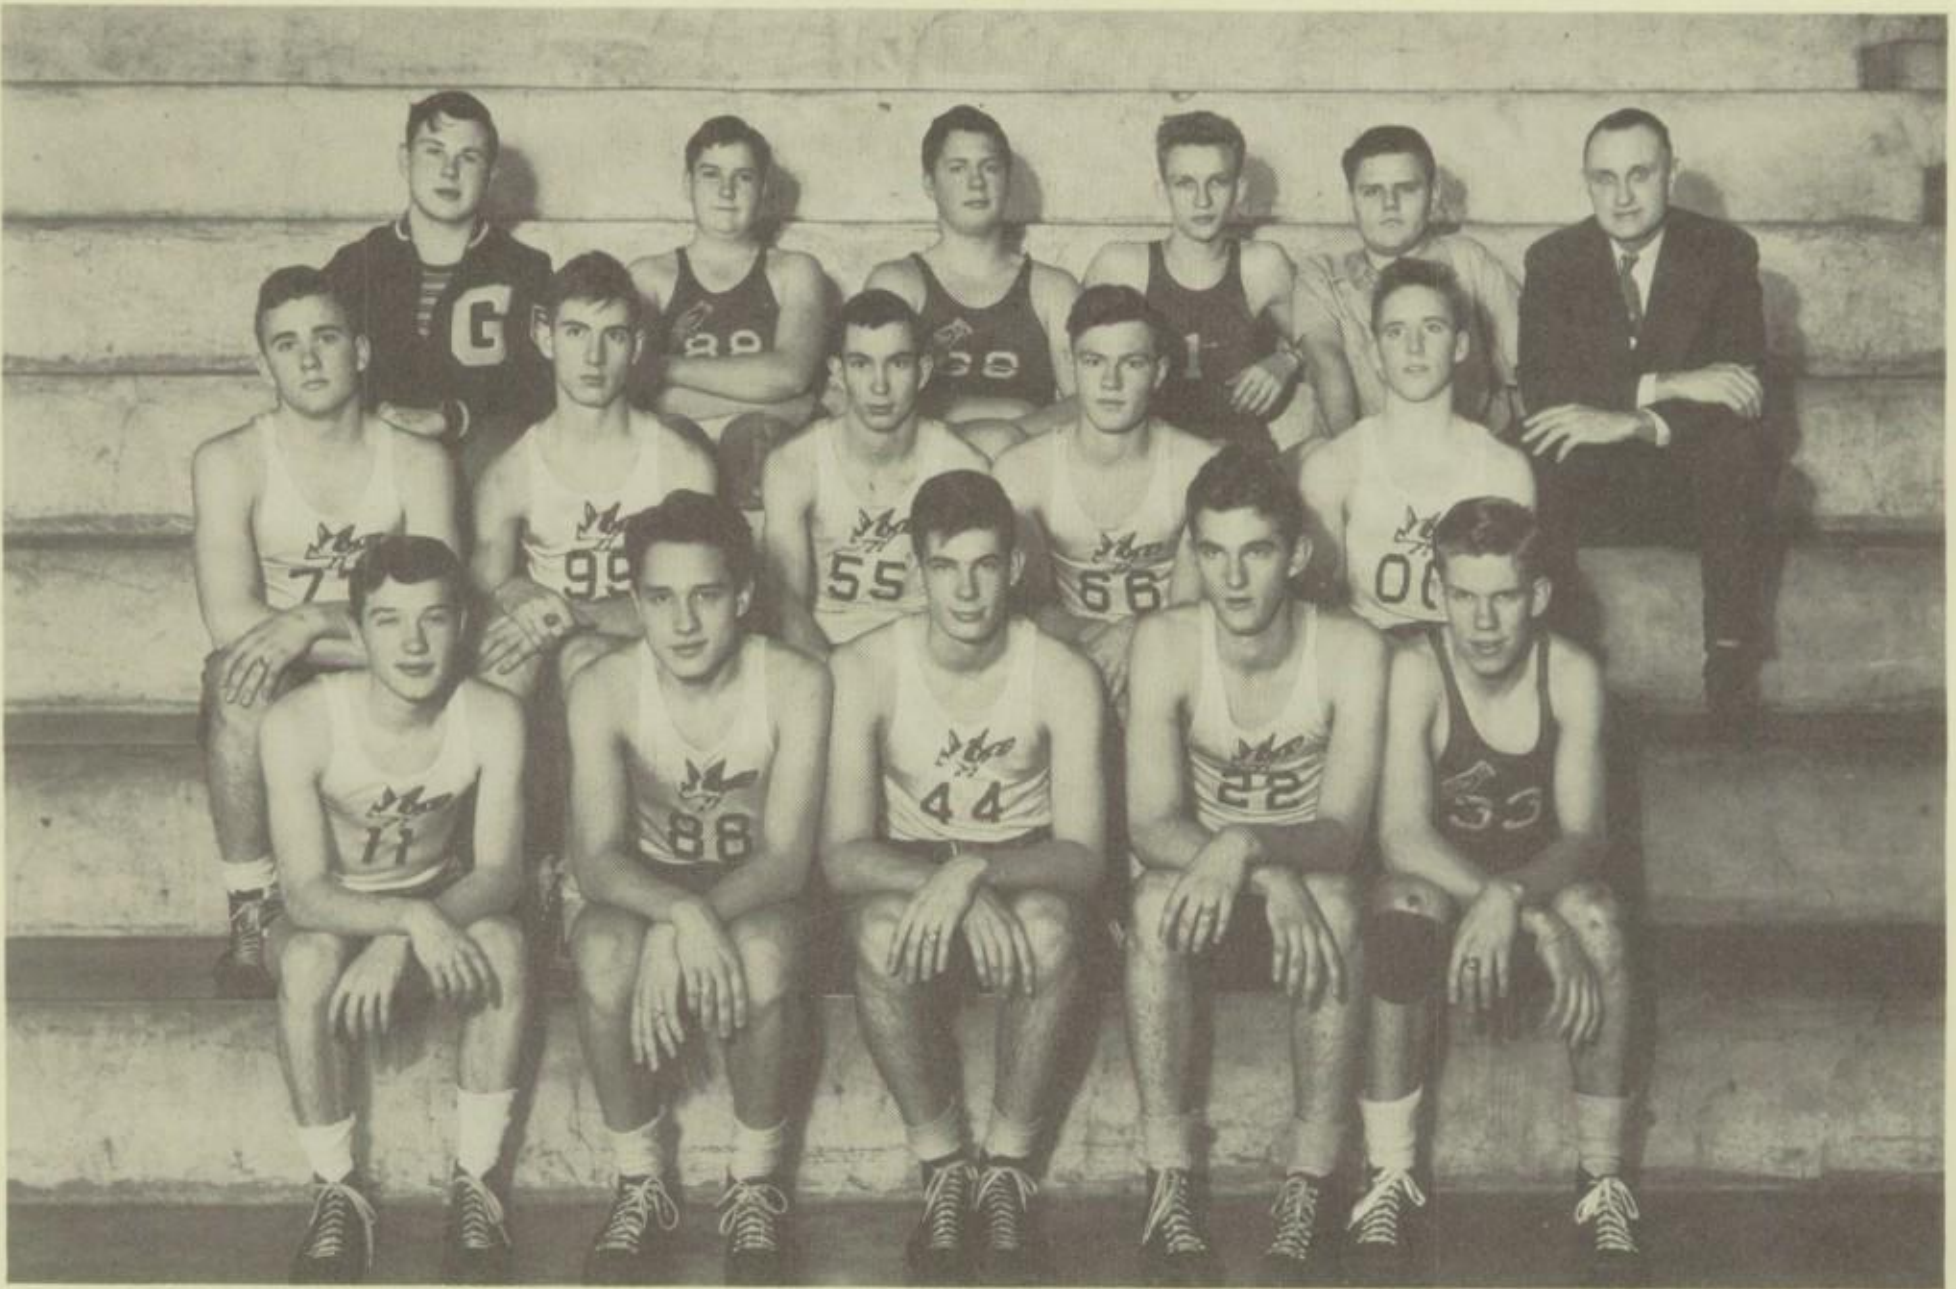

The Bluejays were unable to get started in the subregional tournament and lost their first game to Republic 32-28, thus ending the season with 13 wins and 10 losses. This year's team made up for lack of scoring ability by its very fine defensive play and due credit must be given to Coach "Speedy" Collins for his leadership and excellent coaching.

TRACK

Greenwood's 1945 track team added several more impressive victories to the school's already splendid track record. For the fifth time in eight years, Coach Collins' track men won the Class C state championship in the annual meet held at Columbia, Missouri. Last year's team also won the Oarkamo meet over a field of nine other teams which included many of the biggest schools in the southwest section of Missouri. In addition to this, the Jays won a Class C meet held here and placed third at the West Plains Invitational meet.

For their outstanding work, the lettermen were awarded small gold track shoes by the school.

CARL A. DAVIS MEDAL

When an athlete has fulfilled certain requirements, both in his studies and his athletic achievements, he is awarded the Carl A. Davis Medal. To obtain this medal a student must letter in three sports and at the same time remain on the Honor Roll throughout the year. This award was named for Carl A. Davis, a former State College student and athlete. Mr. Briggs has acclaimed him to be the best example of both student and athletic achievement he has know. Carl A. Davis did not attend Greenwood, however, so it is hoped that someday Greenwood will produce a student and athlete worthy of having the medal named for him. This gold medal is the highest award that can be obtained, but there is a silver medal which is given when a boy letters in either one or two sports and maintains an average of S during the year. Those who have received Carl A. Davis Medals in the past years are:

1928 - Charles Martin	1935 - Dolph Crews
Kenny Kilburn	1936 - Walter Thomas
Henry Meyer	Billy Bob Dyche
1929 -	1937 -
1930 - Alfred Taylor	1938 - Guy Calloway

TRADITIONS

VALEDICTORIAN

Jean Ann Saltsman, with an average of 10.41 out of a possible 11 points, is the highest ranking student in this year's senior class. A student of Greenwood since the first grade, Jean Ann was a member of the Junior Honor Society, the Drum Corps, and the staffs of both the Cub Standard and the Annual. She has also held numerous class offices and was a cheer leader in her senior year.

SALUTATORIAN

Earning an average of 10.24, Jeannette Bell is this year's second highest student. It is very seldom that two people in one class make an average as high as 10. Jeannette has attended Greenwood for 13 years, and during that time has been a member of the Junior Honor Society, the Drum Corps, the Cub Standard Staff, and is the editor of this year's Annual. She also has held membership in the Student Council.

"Spring Fever"

This year's senior class play, "Spring Fever," by Glenn Hughes, was presented May 13, in the college auditorium.

A comedy in three acts, the play concerns itself with the difficulties of the students of Brookfield College the day before graduation.

Vic Lewis mistakes dignified Henry Purcell for a Bolshevik artist's model and treats the gentleman in a manner which is anything but dignified. When Mrs. Purcell arrives in search of her missing husband, she is frightened beyond belief by explosions from the home made laboratory of Ed Burns, a budding chemist in search of a substitute for dynamite. To add to the confusion, Howard Brant's aunt Maude arrives in town to see Howard graduate—but he won't graduate unless his zoology professor accepts a certain zoology paper which was slightly late. The surprised way in which these complications are disentangled go to produce one of the most enjoyable senior class plays ever presented in Greenwood.

HONOR DAY

Honor Day is held in the gymnasium, profusely decked with flowers, at the beginning of Commencement week. On this afternoon, at the loveliest tradition of the school year, students who have deserved special honors are awarded red roses. To attain this honor, a student must have a scholastic achievement, serve on the Student Council, be a class president, or win a letter in sports. One member representing the band and one member representing the Drum Corps are honored for their two organizations.

This is the occasion on which Fair Greenwood and Sir Greenwood, who are chosen for their popularity, are introduced to the students and guests, and Fair Greenwood in turn crowns the First Citizen, who is chosen for his or her scholastic record, leadership and citizenship. A parent of one of the seniors gives an address followed by Dr. Trentham's presentation of the Honored Students.

To the strains of "To a Wild Rose," Fair Greenwood admits the students to "The Order of the Rose." This is done by the giving of a single American Beauty rose to each person.

The following students have achieved the posts of Fair Greenwood, First Citizen, and Sir Greenwood in the past years:

FAIR GREENWOOD

SIR GREENWOOD

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club was reorganized in the fall of the 1945-1946 school year. The act of organizing this year carried on a tradition started several years ago by Dr. Anna Lou Blair, the supervisor of languages at the college and Greenwood.

Members of the second year Spanish class were eligible, and it was purely a voluntary affair. The club met every two weeks in various homes, and the evenings were spent in conversing and singing in Spanish, and playing Spanish games. A penny was paid as a fine for every English word spoken. A banquet was to be given at the spring with the funds that had been collected, but this plan had to be abandoned because of the lack of money.

This year's officers of the club were: President, Jack Denton; Vice-President, Annette Close; Treasurer, Mary Lou Humphreys; Secretary, Bob Feather; Sergeants-at-arms, Mardith Keithly and Bob Neely.

FOOTBALL BANQUET

The close of Greenwood's championship football season was celebrated with a banquet given in honor of the team by the Drum Corps on Thursday, November 13, 1945. The study hall was transformed into a banquet hall by yards of blue and white crepe paper, while greeting the guests was a life-size replica of a football player, with a football for a head and wearing a lineman's suit and helmet. The place cards were decorated with miniature bluejays.

After a delicious dinner, the toastmistress, Donna Sue Thompson, introduced as speakers Dr. Trentham, Coach "Speedy" Collins, Norman Teem, Lawrence Brandt, Jim Sunderland, Tom Anderson, and next year's captain, Pete H'Doubler.

To top off the evening the seniors presented a skit--the scene of which was a Greenwood football game.

The banquet was a fitting climax to a championship football season.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

Truly the most colorful social occasion of the school year is the Junior-Senior Prom. For approximately 21 years the Junior classes have striven to better the Proms given before them. By profiting from the advances and failures of the previous classes, the proms have now reached their peak. Coming to such highly decorated themes as "Spring Time," "A Roof Garden," "A Pirate Ship," and "Ciro's Night Club," the Juniors, Seniors, and selected Sophomores and their dates dance until the music stops or until they drop. This occasion helps end the school year with happy memories and good fellowship between the upper classes.

CLASS WILL

We, the Greenwood Class of '46, being all beat out and worn down, with no brains because Harry J. has them all (just ask him), leave these fruits of effort to those mentioned herein.

Don Tingler begrudgingly relinquishes one hair from his chest and instructions for growth to Warren Keller with hopes that he won't grow cold.

Pete Burns leaves Marilyn Keiffer and her unorthodox charms to Hal Brown.

Louise H'Doubler leaves in search of Joe.

Roger Gillespie and Tommy Bond entrust their Boy Scout knives and can opener to Ken Churney in hopes he will always "Be Prepared."

Ray Reed bequeaths a lock of his hair to Marjorie Long and Jo Ann Bryant, who may cherish it instead of him when he is gone.

Jack Denton and Bob Feather leave their tree-top window peeking ability to Dopey, David Olinger, and Jimmy Morris.

Annabelle Thompson refuses to speak.

Mary Lou Humphreys takes a little time off from her flirting to leave to Annette Close, three long razors and detailed instructions "How to Fight for the Whites."

Sylvia Smith leaves her pick, shovel, and gold pan and ten easy lessons to the junior class girls.

Jimmy Sunderland leaves his sweaty, bent, corroded pliers for pinching pennies to John Christian.

Erwin Busiek, who thanks Pete for the warm South wind he produces when arguing the superiority of his hot rod Mercury, leaves a fifteen volume thesis on the merits of a Pontiac to Pete H'Doubler.

Jeannette Bell leaves to anyone, anyone that is, one annual with accompanying inks, papers, typewriters, layout sheets, rubber cement, and a wide profane vocabulary.

Norman (Pepper-Ves) Teem leaves a well sneezoned student body.

Jean Ann Saltsman leaves one study hall, almost entirely unused (she thinks because she hasn't been in it since the gay '90's), to any undergraduate who will promise to treat it in the same careful way.

Mary Lou Johnson leaves the parts and remains of her well beat out Ford to John Christian so he may keep his rollin' during the coming year.

Don (Flatbush) Flanagan gives Mickey Mouse back to Walt Disney.

Eddy and Liz leave their inseparability to Margaret and Dixie and hope they carry on in a more dignified fashion.

Dora Quinn leaves a whirlwind basketball technique to Dixie Lee Morris, as if she needed it.

Lawrence (Wriggles) Brandt leaves his marks on the scuffed, mangled chairs and jarred spines of Greenwood High School.

Carolyn Hedgecock leaves her constant support of the football captain to the silent (until next football season) admirers of "Slugger" H'Doubler.

Paul Rich leaves - - - - - "oh it's too much effort."

Bert Crain leaves his ability to quietly get along with other people to Franklin Brown.

Donna Sue Thompson leaves her premeditated movements of every muscle to Annette Close.

Tommy (Shiek) Anderson leaves volume 20 of "I'm God's Gift to Women" to Davy Dean Edwards, who has the other 19.

Sylvia Lee McDaniel leaves her little black book of Bobs to her sister in order to keep it in the family.

Francis (Whitey) BeVier leaves in search of Elsie and Elmer, the Borden cows.

Jeanne Craig leaves her constant griping at Study Hall to Martha Anderson.

The Humor Editors hereby send their ill will from the North Pole.

Remarks: Oogle google.

In witness thereof, we, the senior class of '46, being in sound mind and body (with a few minor exceptions) have hereunto set out hands and seals.
